DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC §§ 102 and 103

1. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.
2. Claims 1, 3, 4, 7, 9, 10 and 15-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by U.S. Patent Number 5,927,002 (Walton et al., hereinafter Walton).

Regarding claims 1, 15 and 16, Figure 2 of Walton shows a main body member 16 defining a base footprint with at least three downwardly extending inclined legs 30; and an outer arm area with at least three upwardly extending inclined arms 22. Due to the presence of blossoms 24, the outer arm area is considered to be greater than the footprint area.

Regarding claims 3, 4 and 7, the arms and legs (and therefore the footprint and outer arm areas) are adjustable within body member 16.

Regarding claim 9, Figure 2 shows arms 22 extending at different angles.

Regarding claim 10, holes are considered to be formed when arms 22 and legs 30 are inserted into body member 16.

Regarding claim 17, additional legs 30 correspond to the recited elongate sticks.

Art Unit: 3711

3. Claims 8, 12, 13, 18 and 24-26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Walton as applied above.

Regarding claims 8, 12 and 13, body member 16 is inherently capable of accommodating the arms at various inclinations as well as providing an asymmetric footprint area or outer arm area.

Regarding claim 18, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to use legs 30 of different lengths depending on the type of floral arrangement a designer wanted to arrange.

Regarding claims 24-26, it would have been an obvious matter of design choice to one of ordinary skill in the art to vary the size of the footprint area in order to change the style or configuration of the Walton flower arrangement.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments with respect to claim 1 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS

Art Unit: 3711

ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
